Project Tasks

1. Get familiar with the specification of the hash function assigned to you.

4. Get familiar with the corresponding reference software implementation.

5. Get ready for a test in which you will be asked to point and explain the correspondence among the components of
   - specification
   - block diagram
   - VHDL code, and
   - reference software implementation.